PREMIER PHYSICAL THERAPY CLINIC GUIDELINES

The staff at Premier Physical Therapy is dedicated to providing you with the best care possible. In order to do so, we ask that you read and comply with the following guidelines:

Please be prompt for your scheduled appointment. By doing so, we can ensure that all patients are afforded the courtesy of individualized care and attention allotted during their scheduled time slot.

When arriving for a scheduled appointment, we ask that you sign in, and be seated until your therapist brings you back. Please DO NOT proceed into the gym/treatment area unless escorted/invited by your Clinician.

Please wear or bring appropriate attire to allow proper access to the body part being treated (sneakers, shorts, t-shirts/ tank tops, etc.). We have rooms available for changing, at your convenience. Please provide adequate time to change prior to your scheduled treatment time.

NOTE: Premier Physical Therapy is not responsible for items lost or stolen.

CANCELLATION POLICY:

We understand that sometimes appointments have to be rescheduled or cancelled. If you are unable to attend a scheduled appointment, we ask that you provide at least 24 hours notice. If proper notice is not provided, a $30.00 fee will be assessed to your account. Following three unexplained cancellations or no-shows, Premier Physical Therapy reserves the right to cancel your remaining appointments, discharge your care and notify your physician.

FINANCIAL POLICY

Your insurance policy requires the payment of co-payments and deductible amounts from you at the time of service. Your insurance company also requires Premier to collect your co-payment or unmet deductible amount or we could be in violation of our contract with your insurance company and risk not being reimbursed for your treatment process.

As a courtesy, Premier will bill your insurance company for their portion of your payment. However it is your personal responsibility to know your policy and benefits and provide payment for all services rendered at time of treatment that are not covered by insurance.

We accept payment by Visa Mastercard, American Express, personal check or cash.

CONDITION OF ADMISSION:

Premier Physical Therapy and may disclose all or any part of your record to any person or corporation which is, or may be, liable under a contract to Premier or to the patient. We can also release to a family member or employer of the patient for all or part of Premier Physical Therapy's charges, including but are not limited to, hospital or medical service companies, insurance companies, workman's compensation.

The undersigned authorizes the Social Security Administration to disclose information regarding their Medicare coverage, including but not limited to, verification of my Medicare number, effective dates and type of coverage to Premier Physical Therapy. The undersigned also requests payment of government benefits and all medical benefits to Premier when applicable.

The undersigned consents to treatment or procedures rendered to the patient by Premier Physical Therapy. It is further understood that Premier Physical Therapy is authorized to carry out all instructions of the patient's referring doctor when applicable and that Premier Physical Therapy is hereby relieved of any and all liability from the performance of said doctor's instructions. The undersigned requests and authorizes the staff at Premier Physical Therapy to provide them with treatment and to perform any procedures now contemplated or such additional procedures as their doctor may deem reasonable and necessary. If no referring doctor is applicable the undersigned consents for Premier Physical Therapy to treat them in a manner or practice that would be deemed both medically practical and efficient. The undersigned's signature waives Premier Physical Therapy of all liability for said treatment rendered barring any acts of medical negligence.

Premier Physical Therapy provides treatment to its patients in the most efficient and effective manner possible, as opposed to only providing the modalities allowed and reimbursed by the patient's insurance company. Deemed medically necessary, the physical therapy treatment will be billed by Premier Physical Therapy AS A COURTESY, but there may be certain supplies and services not covered in the patient's insurance contract.

The undersigned agrees to be fully responsible for all costs not paid for by third-party The undersigned certifies that he/she has read the forgoing and is the patient, or is duly authorized by the patient as the patient's general agent to execute the above and accept its terms.

This request is to remain in effect for one (1) year unless otherwise revoked.

NOTICE OF PREMIER PHYSICAL THERAPY PRIVACY PRACTICES

Effective September 15, 2003

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

UNDERSTANDING THE TYPE OF INFORMATION WE HAVE:

We receive information about you during your first visit with us, including your name, date of birth, gender, ways to contact you, your social security number, financial information, insurance information and other personal information. We also collect information regarding your condition, diagnosis and treatment. Along with collecting this information from you, we also get enrolment and eligibility status from your health insurer and medical information from other health care providers.

OUR PRIVACY COMMITMENT TO YOU:

The information we collect about you is private. We are required to give you an idea of our privacy practices. Only those individuals who have both the need and the legal right may view your information. Unless you give us permission in writing, we will only disclose your information for purposes of treatment, payment, business operations, and when we are required by law to do so, or for one of the other reasons listed below.

Treatment: We may use or disclose medical information about you to provide and coordinate your health care. For example, after your initial appointment with us we usually send a letter to you referring physician regarding your treatment. Another letter shall be sent after you have been discharged from our care.

Payment: Information may be disclosed so that the care you get receive can be properly billed and paid for. For example, we may send your health insurer a bill for our services explaining the treatment you received and why. Business Operations: We may need to use and disclose information in our business operations. For example, in order to improve activity necessary to run the business (training or for reviewing the quality of care that you and others receive from us).

Exceptions: For certain kinds of records, your permission may be required, even for release of treatment, payment and business operations. We will provide you with authorization and consent forms for your signature in order for us to release certain information.

Phone Messages: We may contact you via phone, answering machine or mail to provide you with authorization, referral, and billing information including information regarding other services that may be of interest to you. You may request in writing if you do not wish for this information to be left with a person other than yourself via phone. As required by Law and for other Government Functions: We will release information when required to do so by law or for other government functions. Examples of such releases would be for law enforcement, subpoenas or other court orders, for national security purposes, communicable disease reporting, disaster relief, review of our activities by government agencies, to avert a serious threat to health or safety, or in other kinds of emergencies. Public Health and Safety: We may use or disclose information about you as necessary to prevent or reduce a serious threat to the health or safety of another person or the public. For example, we will have to disclose information about certain diseases (and immunizations) to public health officials.

Family and Friends: We may disclose your information to family members, friends or others you identity to the extent it is relevant to their involvement with your care or payment for your care, or to let them know about where you are and your condition.

After Death: We may disclose your information to coroners or medical examiners and funeral homes after you are deceased. With Your Permission: If you provide us permission in writing, we may use and disclose your personal information for the purposes you list. If you give us permission, you have the right to change your mind and revoke it, but this must be in writing. We cannot take back any uses or disclosures already made with your permission. Our use and disclosure of your personal health information must comply not only with federal privacy regulations but also with applicable Florida law. Florida law provides different protection to your personal health information. For example, Florida provides extra protection for minors; we must adhere to the more stringent state privacy protections.
